Course Policies

AESHM Policies
AESHM Collegiality Statement
The Department of Apparel, Events, and Hospitality Management is committed to sustaining a collegial, positive, and productive environment for scholarship, learning, institutional service, and outreach for each individual and the collective benefit of all. Faculty and professional staff are expected to conduct themselves to contribute constructively to the department's mission and reputation.

In addition, faculty and professional staff are expected to maintain a positive workplace that emphasizes respect for the opinions of others and is free from forms of misconduct, as enumerated in Chapter 7 of the ISU Faculty Handbook - https://www.provost.iastate.edu/faculty-and-staff-resources/faculty-handbook.
Iowa State University Policies

Public Health
If you are not feeling well, you should stay home and focus on your health. Should you miss class due to illness, it is your responsibility to work with your instructor to arrange for accommodations and to make up coursework, as consistent with the instructor’s attendance policy.

Free expression
Iowa State University supports and upholds the First Amendment protection of freedom of speech and the principle of academic freedom in order to foster a learning environment where open inquiry and the vigorous debate of a diversity of ideas are encouraged. Students will not be penalized for the content or viewpoints of their speech as long as student expression in a class context is germane to the subject matter of the class and conveyed in an appropriate manner.

Principles of Community
This course is operated according to the Iowa State University Principles of Community.
https://www.diversity.iastate.edu/connect/principles
1. Respect: We seek to foster an open-minded understanding among individuals, organizations, and groups. We support this understanding through outreach, increasing opportunities for collaboration, formal education programs, and strategies for resolving the disagreement.
2. Purpose: We are encouraged to be engaged in the university community. Thus, we strive to build a genuine community that promotes the advancement of knowledge, cooperation, and leadership.
3. Cooperation: We recognize that the university’s mission is enhanced when we work together to achieve our goals. Therefore, we value each member of the Iowa State University community for their insights and efforts, collective and individual, to enhance the quality of campus life.
4. Richness of diversity: We recognize and cherish the richness of diversity in our university experience. Furthermore, we strive to increase the diversity of ideas, cultures, and experiences throughout the university community.
5. Freedom from discrimination: We recognize that we must strive to overcome historical and divisive biases in our society. Therefore, we commit ourselves to creating and maintaining a community where all students, staff, faculty, and administrators can work together in an atmosphere free from discrimination and respond appropriately to all acts of discrimination.
6. Honest and respectful expression of ideas: We affirm the right to and the importance of a free exchange of ideas at Iowa State University within the bounds of courtesy, sensitivity, and respect. We promote awareness of various ideas through education and constructive strategies to consider and engage in honest disagreements.
Academic Dishonesty
The class will follow Iowa State University’s policy on academic misconduct (5.1 in the Student Code of Conduct). Students are responsible for adhering to university policy and the expectations in the course syllabus and on coursework and exams, and for following directions given by faculty, instructors, and Testing Center regulations related to coursework, assessments, and exams. Anyone suspected of academic misconduct will be reported to the Office of Student Conduct in the Dean of Students Office. Information about academic integrity and the value of completing academic work honestly can be found in the Iowa State University Academic Integrity Tutorial.

Accessibility Statement
Iowa State University is committed to advancing equity, access, and inclusion for students with disabilities. Promoting these values entails providing reasonable accommodations where barriers exist to students’ full participation in higher education. Students in need of accommodations or who experience accessibility-related barriers to learning should work with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) to identify resources and support available to them. Staff at SAS collaborate with students and campus partners to coordinate accommodations and to further the academic excellence of students with disabilities. Information about SAS is available online at www.sas.dso.iastate.edu, by email at accessibility@iastate.edu, or by phone at 515-294-7220.

Discrimination and Harassment
Iowa State University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, age, ethnicity, religion, national origin, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, sex, marital status, disability, or status as a U.S. Veteran. Inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies may be directed to Office of Equal Opportunity, 3410 Beardshear Hall, 515 Morrill Road, Ames, Iowa 50011, Tel. 515-294-7612, Hotline 515-294-1222, email eooffice@iastate.edu

Religious Accommodation
Iowa State University welcomes diversity of religious beliefs and practices, recognizing the contributions differing experiences and viewpoints can bring to the community. There may be times when an academic requirement conflicts with religious observances and practices. If that happens, students may request the reasonable accommodation for religious practices. In all cases, you must put your request in writing. The instructor will review the situation in an effort to provide a reasonable accommodation when possible to do so without fundamentally altering a course. For students, you should first discuss the conflict and your requested accommodation with your professor at the earliest possible time. You or your instructor may also seek assistance from the Dean of Students Office at 515-294-1020 or the Office of Equal Opportunity at 515-294-7612.

Classroom or Grade Problems:
The Department of Apparel, Events and Hospitality Management values each student and strives to provide the best educational experience possible.
If you believe a faculty member (in their academic capacity) has behaved unfairly or unprofessionally towards you, please direct your concern in the following order:

1. Course Instructor
   - If at all possible, resolve the problem with the student and the instructor involved.
   - If course is taught by a graduate student instructor, student should contact supervising faculty member listed on syllabus.

2. Department
   - AESHM Associate Chair for Undergraduate Academic Affairs, Dr. Eric Brown, ebrown@iastate.edu
   - AESHM Associate Chair and Director of Graduate Education, Dr. Ann-Marie Fiore, amfiore@iastate.edu

3. College
   - CHS Associate Dean for Undergraduate Academic Affairs Dean, Dr. Robert Reason, rreason@iastate.edu
   - Associate Dean of the Graduate College, Dr. Heather Greenlee, mheather@iastate.edu

NOTE: If the grievance involves sexual or racial harassment and the student prefers not to deal directly with the instructor, the student should discuss the grievance with the instructor’s department chair Dr. Linda Niehm (niehmlin@iastate.edu), or appropriate Associate Chair listed under (2) Department.

More details are available at https://catalog.iastate.edu/academics/#academicgrievancesappealstext

Violence Free University
At ISU, violence, threats or implied threats of violence, and intimidation (verbal or physical acts intended to frighten or coerce) impede the goal of providing a safe environment and will not be tolerated. For more information, refer to http://www.policy.iastate.edu/policy/violence.

Emergency Response
For more information, refer to http://www.policy.iastate.edu/policy/emergencynotification.

Course-Specific Polices

Attendance
Students are expected to access the course canvas page weekly.

Work Quality
This is an online preparatory course for your professional internship experience. You will need to manage your time effectively as there is much to complete. In addition, your work at this point should reflect a level of proficiency expected of industry professionals.
